

Mr Sazali Ibrahim

Manager, Operations and Training.
DGM Support (M) Sdn Bhd.

Mr Sazali Ibrahim, is a Certified Trainer of the International Air Transport Association, IATA. He has more than 20 years experience in ground and air transport movements specifically in the area concerning the movement of dangerous goods and special cargo. Been attached to several companies related to transportation. He completed the IATA requirements for Certified Trainer in the following areas:

- Dangerous Goods Regulations by Malaysia Airlines Systems.
- Dangerous Goods Regulations by IATA.
- Ground Security Coordinator Course.
- Professional Skill For DGR Instructors by IATA.
- Dangerous Goods Regulations by DGM.
- Approved by Department of Civil Aviation, Malaysia.

Mr Sazali has vast experience in this field with experience in carrier management, air cargo procedures and console management as well as cargo management software.

Mr Micheal Foong

Manager, Operations DG Specialist/Instructor.
Dangerous Goods Management (Singapore) Pte Ltd.

Started work at DGM Singapore Pte Ltd in 1992. He is involved in packing, documentation and consultancy for DG by air and by sea. He started to teach at IATA DGR in March, 2000 and trained various shippers, freight forwarders, cargo agents, courier companies like DHL, TNT, World Courier, and DPEX in the South East Asia region, Indonesia, Thailand, Vietnam, Hong Kong and China. Prior to joining DGM, he has 22 years of warehousing, shipping and logistics background in 5 multinational companies dealing with components, pharmaceuticals and chemicals.

Mr Mohd Yatim @ Mustaffa

DG Specialist.
Dangerous Goods Management (Singapore) Pte Ltd.

Started work in Chartered Industrial of Singapore (Defend Industries) in 1970. Managed the warehouse for receiving and storage of raw and finish products for production of arms and ammunitions. Joined DGM Singapore in 1998, specialized in packaging of dangerous goods for transportation by air and sea. Provided consultation service to the shippers, freight forwarders and also ground handling agents on transportation of dangerous goods. Qualified as the trainer in 2002 by IATA Singapore and, in 2004 passed the IATA Radioactive and Infectious Substances courses.

